In this regard, the Carrier may at any time, and without notice to the Merchant, use any means of carriage or storage whatsoever, transfer the Goods from an conveyance to another, including transshipping or carrying the Goods on a Vessel other than that (3) specified on the face hereof, proceed by any route in Carrier's discretion (whether or not the nearest or most direct, customary or advertised route) and proceed to, or stay at any place or port whatsoever, load and unload the Goods at any place or port (whether or not such port is named on the face of this Bill as the port of loading or the port of discharge) and store the Goods at any such place or ports, and/or comply with any orders or recommendations given by any government or local authority or any Person or body acting or purporting to act on behalf of such government or local authority. In the absence of such laws or conventions then the provisions of Clause 7(1) will apply.

- (1) In the event the provisions of this sub-section 7(2)(A-E) are held inapplicable to any aspect of the Carriage covered by this Bill whether by local law or International Convention or otherwise, the Carrier shall nevertheless be relieved of liability for loss or damage occurring during the Carriage if such loss or damage was caused by any cause or event which Carrier could not avoid and the consequences thereof he could not prevent by the exercise of reasonable diligence.
- (2) Unknown Liability - When it cannot be established in whose custody the Goods were when the loss or damage occurred, it shall be conclusively presumed that the loss or damage occurred during the Carriage and the Carrier shall be governed as provided in Clause 7(1) hereof.

In case the seal of the container(s) is broken by Customs or other governmental authorities for inspection of the Goods, the Carrier shall not be liable for any loss or damage to the Goods or the contents thereof.
- (5) The Merchant is obliged to clean the Container(s) at his expense before redelivering to the Carrier so that they are suitable for further service. If the Merchant fails to redeliver the Container(s) as aforesaid, all charges in connection therewith shall be borne by Merchant.

It is agreed that superficial rust, oxidation or condensation inside the Container(s) or any like condition due to moisture is not the responsibility of the Carrier, unless said condition arises out of Carrier's failure to provide a seaworthy Container to the Merchant prior to loading. If the Merchant requires special arrangements or care for the Carriage of such Goods, he must request same in writing to the Carrier and said arrangements must be noted on the face of this Bill and all special Freight, as required, must be paid by the Merchant.

- (4) The Merchant and Goods shall be jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the payment of all Freight, demurrage, General Average, salvage and other charges, including but not limited to court costs, expenses and reasonable attorney's fees incurred in collecting sums due Carrier. 20. GENERAL AVERAGE AND SALVAGE

General average shall be adjusted, stated and settled at any port or place at the Carrier's option according to the York-Antwerp Rules 1994, and as to matters not provided for in these rules according to the laws and usages of the port or place of adjustment, and in the currency specified by the Carrier. Average agreement and bond, together with such additional security as may be required by the Carrier, shall be furnished before delivery of the Goods.

In the event of accident, danger, damage or disaster before or after commencement of the voyage resulting from any cause whatsoever, whether due to negligence or not, for which, or for the consequences of which, the Carrier is not responsible by statute, contract or otherwise, the Goods and the Merchant jointly and severally shall contribute to the loss or damage or payable by the other or non-carrying Vessel or her owners or insofar as such liability represents loss of or damage to his goods or other property whatsoever, whether or not carried or payable by the other or non-carrying Vessel or her owners to the Merchant and set-off recouped or recovered by the other or non-carrying Vessel or her owners as part of their claim against the carrying Vessel or the owner thereof. 22. NOTICE OF CLAIM AND TIME FOR SUIT

Unless notice of loss of damage and a general nature of such loss or damage be given in writing to the Carrier at the port of discharge or place of delivery before or at the time of delivery of the Goods, or, if the loss or damage be not apparent, within three days after delivery, the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered as described in this Bill.
